2019 Y2I Cancellation and Reimbursement Policies

In the event of cancellation before March 4, 2019 a full refund of the $500 deposit and $150 insurance and tips fee will be given. For cancellation after March 4, 2019, the deposit will be forfeited and your family will be responsible for any costs incurred by Lappin Foundation on your behalf. The $200 program fee is not refundable.

Disciplinary action, including dismissal from the trip due to violation of the Code of Conduct and Statement of Responsibility, is the prerogative of Lappin Foundation's Executive Director. Lappin Foundation reserves the right to withdraw participants with undisclosed medical or health problems, which have not been documented prior to departure, if those conditions adversely interfere with normal trip activities.

If your child is dismissed for disciplinary reasons, the return transportation will be at your expense, and there will not be any refund of deposits. You will be responsible to remit the entire subsidy to the Lappin Foundation, as well as any other costs incurred on your behalf by Lappin Foundation.

Please make sure that you read and discuss the Code of Conduct and Statement of Responsibility with your child before signing this document.

The undersigned hereby agree that in the event my/our child receives a subsidy from Lappin Foundation and is dismissed from 2019 Youth to Israel Adventure, the entire $6,500 subsidy must be returned to Lappin Foundation. I/we agree that if we withdraw from 2019 Youth to Israel Adventure after March 4, 2019 that I/we are liable for any costs the Lappin Foundation incurred on my/our child's behalf. I/we agree that if my/our child is terminated for disciplinary reasons as detailed in the Code of Conduct and Statement of Responsibility, the return transportation will be at our expense, and there will not be any refund of deposits. Repayment of additional expenses incurred by Lappin Foundation will also be our responsibility.
